Militlary Sexual Assault Prevention and Response

No Fee Languages Spoken English

Sexual Assault Prevention and Response (SAPR) staff assist military victims of sexual assault in the Hampton Roads area. The SAPR program was created to deal with the serious problem of sexual assault through effective risk-reduction measures and sensitive victim response.

SAPR provides: Victim advocacy, Training for Advocates, Command consultation, Sexual assault awareness and risk-reduction training (at your work site).

Service Area(s) Norfolk City