Four C's Senior Care is committed to wholesome quality care (Compassion, Comfort, Customized Care and Cost Effective) living. We strive to provide a homelike environment that is safe and nurturing. The needs of our residents will be met while preserving their quality of life. Services include assistance with activities of daily living; grooming care; homestyle meals; medication management; concierge services; housekeeping services; transportation; social, recreational and cultural activities; and optional supportive services.

An emergency call system is in every room. A full time events director is on site. Our events programming is tailored to nurture the mind, body and spirit. Respite short term care is also available when space permits.

No licensure from Virginia Department of Social Services is required because the number of residents is 4 or less.
