Northampton Community Center offers a variety of programs and instructional classes for all age groups ranging from piano lessons to fitness programs.

A special feature of this center is a game room, function and meetings rooms for smaller to medium size groups and a large reception room ideal for larger group meetings, receptions, banquets, workshops and seminars.

Lifelong learning program is offered at this location. There are additional programs for seniors including social activities, fitness programs, and education workshops.

All participants age 6 and older must have an ID card for all programs. Visitors can obtain a visitor's pass after paying $5 per day.
