Emily Green Shores is an assisted and independent living facility that has been in operation for thirty years. The facility overlooks the Elizabeth River and Portsmouth City Park. Emily Green is affiliated with the Portsmouth Baptist Association and offers an environment where religious expression is honored and encouraged. The average occupancy rate is 100 percent and the waiting list averages one or two months. There is no fee for the waiting list, only a fifty-dollar non-refundable application fee. Non-ambulatory residents are accepted.

While most residents of Emily Green are independent, the following services are offered:

- Dining Room: Meals are offered 3 times daily and a snack is served in the evening.
- Maintenance: Building and grounds staff are on call 24 hours a day.
- Housekeeping: Resident rooms are cleaned weekly.
- Laundry: Linens are provided and personal laundry is done weekly, or as needed, for no additional charge.
- Activities: A variety of activities are offered daily.
- Nursing: Nursing staff is present 24 hours a day to provide medication administration, treatments or dressings, bowel and bladder assistance, emergency care, restorative care, and bathing and dressing assistance. Other available amenities include banking, beauty salon, and transportation.

Capacity is 39 residents.
