Wellspring, a source for people living with cancer and other chronic illnesses, offers Ripples, an opportunity for women with cancer to network and connect with each other, and to explore different ways to use the creative process for healing. This program is free of charge and open to all women who have had cancer.

Please plan to join the group for a quarterly Saturday brunch provided by members. All are welcome. Meetings will be held at Wellspring, Valley Health's cancer resource center at 525 Amherst Street in Winchester, VA, from 10 a.m. to 12 p.m.
