The American Cancer Society is the foremost nationwide community dedicated to eliminating cancer as a major health problem. They provide:

- Funding for cancer research projects by state
- Provides up-to-date and accurate information about a specific type of cancer, its risk factors, early detection, diagnosis, treatment, survival, and quality of life issues
- Advocates beneficial policies, laws, and regulations for patients and families affected by cancer
- Assists in finding treatment, doctors, and hospitals and what to ask about your treatment
- Provides a variety of services for cancer patients, i.e., rides to chemotherapy appointment, hair loss products, etc.

If you have a question that you would like to send to your American Cancer Society by email, please use the form provided on the website. Your email will be answered within 3-7 days. If you need immediate information, you can contact the ACS by phone 24/7 at 800-227-2345 (or 866-228-4327 for TTY) or contact them via Live Chat Monday-Friday, 8:00 AM-6:30 PM CST.
