Eiland Assisted Living at Sunnyside Retirement Community is a residential and assisted living care facility for ambulatory and non-ambulatory residents offering assistance with activities of daily living for those who need a little daily help but do not need 24-hour care. Scheduled transportation and medication assistance are provided to residents. Planned activities are available.

Sunnyside is a full-service retirement community and a licensed Continuing Care Community, offering three levels of care. Residents typically enter on an independent level and progress through the continuum of care.
