Thomas B. Smith Community Center is a free-standing community center located on the south side of Richmond that has a large multi-purpose room, computer lab, and kitchen. This Community Center offers various classes, workshops, and clubs to the public and rental of the facility. This center also offers citizens access to computers, word processing, and the Internet free of charge. Times of use depend on the facility's hours of operation. Recreation amenities include playground equipment, tennis courts, basketball courts, and a softball/football field.

Stop by or call for information. Areas of interest are available to youth, adults, and seniors. Call to confirm the days and hours that the Center is open.
