Dr. Decker is a financial services professional and provides estate planning services to protect your estate and your heirs from the enormous taxes that occur when proper financial planning is not done. During the process of planning for your estate, it is beneficial to have a team of professionals including your lawyer or CPA so that no issue is neglected. Dr. Decker can coordinate insurance and financial activities with the other members of your team of financial, tax, and legal advisors.

Appointments can be at the individual's home or a convenient community location.

Services can also help with long-term care insurance, life insurance, and financial planning.
