The Village at Allandale is an assisted living facility offering residents daily activities and outings so the resident can do as much or as little as he or she desires. Pet therapy is enjoyed at the facility; children are encouraged to visit. Capacity is 78 assisted living residents.

Some of the amenities include one-level living; private and companion suites available; 24-hour assistance; emergency call system in bedroom and bathrooms; weekly housekeeping service; weekly laundry service; medication reminders; assistance with activities of daily living such as bathing and grooming; walking trails; family style meal three times a day and more.

Respite care provides temporary care when the caregiver needs time off and an adult day care provides a full-time program with options for evenings and weekends. Often, caregivers need a day, afternoon, evening, or weekend for themselves. Hourly and weekly rates are available.
