JFS Senior Engagement Services provide companionship through two programs.

Friendly Visitors make weekly social visits with older adults or adults who are homebound. The volunteers offer friendship and companionship to individuals looking for someone to spend time with. The volunteers can share stories, listen and reminisce, play games, take walks, and simply enjoy each other's company.

Telephone Reassurance offers volunteers who will call every weekday morning to check in, chat and make sure everything is okay. The volunteers help provide a bright start for an older adult or an isolated individual. Peace of mind is the object of those living alone.
