Senior Centers with congregate meals provide a range of programs for socialization in addition to hot, nutritious meals to adults age 60 and over. Transportation may be available for people who would otherwise not be able to attend. Monetary donations for meals and transportation are encouraged.

Arlington has three Senior Centers that offer lunches Monday through Friday: Langston-Brown, Arlington Mill, and Walter Reed Senior Centers. These services are federally subsidized, with voluntary contributions by participants. Contact the Senior Centers to learn more.
