Charter Senior Living of Williamsburg offers short-term stays for seniors who need care after a hospital stay, or when family members travel out of town or simply need a short respite break from the stresses of caregiving.

Short-term stays can vary from a minimum of 12 days to longer. Short-term guests enjoy housekeeping services, dining, community activities, transportation, and other amenities, as well as coordination of any necessary medical care and help with daily living activities.

Respite care is available as long as space is available.
