Saber Healthcare, The Villages of Rosemont is a residential and assisted living care facility that assists adults in their activities of daily living. This 80-unit assisted living facility offers both private and semi-private room accommodations in a home-like setting with amenities and services to meet the needs of each resident.

Enclosed courtyards allow residents to enjoy nature in a safe and secure environment. Gardens are wheelchair accessible. Staff and supervised nursing care are on-site 24 hours a day. All rooms have individual climate controls, cable television, and telephone hookups. Meals are served restaurant-style in the dining room. A variety of activities are available including outings and special events. Transportation is provided for physician office visits. The campus is shared with the Sentara Nursing Center, allowing for ease in transition if future needs for higher levels of nursing care arise. Short-term Respite Care stays are also available.
