Brandon Oaks offers Memory Support in the Assisted Living area for residents who need extra help due to cognitive impairment, such as dementia or Alzheimer's.

The memory support center is on the first floor of the Assisted Living facility. Specially trained staff has a focus on the state of mind, happiness, and overall health of residents.

The private rooms have a private full bath and access to nursing assistance and care 24 hours a day.

The capacity for memory care and assisted living is 80 residents.

Non-Brandon Oaks residents are welcome for direct admission, as space permits.
