Karis Care Services is a senior care agency offering personalized care services for those who choose to age happily at home. From personal care to Alzheimer's care to transportation, Home Instead services make life easier for seniors and their families. Your local office will match compassionate, reliable caregivers with each person's personality and needs. Their specially trained Alzheimer's caregivers offer an array of services: personal care, maintaining a routine, honoring who the senior was earlier in life, providing nutritious meals, managing changing behaviors, supporting the family, light housework, and more.
