True Companionship LLC offers non-medical homemaker and adult day social care services. In-home care services are for anyone 18 and older who needs help with activities of daily living (ADL), light housework, laundry, shopping, meal prep, companionship and anything else that they can't do on their own or need assistance.

Adult day social services allow seniors to remain active during the day. Services include social interaction, recreational activities, two meals and snacks, and day trips.
