

Non-emergency medical transportation is provided to local or long-distance medical appointments. Providers may offer different levels of accommodations such as assistance to or through the door or utilizing accessible vehicles.

---

View PDF